

LEAP: Leading Entrepreneurs Advocate Progress

Description

Leading Entrepreneurs Advocate Progress (LEAP) is a volunteer group within the Birmingham Bloomfield Chamber that provides a forum for dialogue, ideas and practical approaches for entrepreneurs seeking support in addressing the day-to-day challenges of operating a small business.

Mission

To provide an inspiring, insightful and practical educational forum for Birmingham Bloomfield Chamber member leaders.

To utilize the dynamics of peer interchange and the skills of the participants and leaders to address many of the common issues faced in our business community.

In an environment of mutual trust, support and confidentiality, foster the personal and professional growth of our members.

Confidentiality

All information and ideas exchanged at Committee meetings and/or Forums are considered confidential and will not be disclosed with anyone outside the group without permission.
